OBSERVATION OF “KANYASHREE DIBAS”

14.08.2024

Venue: Hall-01 and College ground

The day of 14th August of every year is observed as “Kanyashree Dibas” since 2014 in West Bengal in all academic and non-academic institutions of government of West Bengal. An initiative was taken by the Government of West Bengal on 8th March 2013 under a scheme named “Kanyashree Prakalpa” to help the girls students of socio-economically backward families by providing cash to promote girls’ education and to prevent social barrier like child marriage. This scheme provides annual scholarship of Rs. 1000/- and one time grant of Rs. 25000/- for unmarried girls students’ aged 13-18 years, who are enrolled in class VIII-XII in government educational institutions. However, this scheme becomes a brand in present and CM of West Bengal hopes that one day world will celebrate “Kanyashree Dibas” as the International Girls Child Day. Sports committee of Nur Mohammad Smriti Mahavidyalaya achieved 1st position Kanyashree Award in the District Murshidabad in 2023. The Mahavidyalaya observed 10th “kanyashree Dibas” on 14.08.2024 at College courtyard. Teaching faculties, office staffs and students take active participation in this program.
