Report On

The Observation of International Mother Language Day 21st February

Date: 21st February 2023

Venue: Nur Mohammad Smriti Mahavidyalaya

Nur Mohammad Smriti Mahavidyalaya solemnly observed International Mother Language Day on 21st February 2023 to pay tribute to the martyrs of the historic Language Movement and to promote awareness of linguistic and cultural diversity. The event was held on the college campus and witnessed enthusiastic participation from students, faculty members, and the Teacher-in-Charge.

The program began with the offering of floral tributes at the temporary Shaheed Minar set up in the college premises, commemorating the sacrifices made for the preservation of mother tongues. This was followed by a short cultural program that included speeches, recitations, and songs in various languages, symbolizing the linguistic diversity of our nation.

The Teacher-in-Charge addressed the gathering and emphasized the importance of language as a core element of cultural identity and human dignity. Faculty members spoke on the value of preserving one's mother language while also showing respect for other languages, thereby fostering unity in diversity.

This observance aimed to instill in students a deeper respect for cultural heritage and an understanding of language as a symbol of identity. It also encouraged them to appreciate the linguistic variety of our country and to uphold the national values of integrity, inclusiveness, and mutual respect.

Outcome

The program successfully sensitized students to the importance of language in shaping identity and promoting unity among diversity. It inspired them to cherish their own linguistic roots while embracing and respecting the languages of others. The event created a platform for promoting human integrity and social harmony through linguistic awareness, aligning with the broader goals of inclusive education and cultural appreciation.

The observation of International Mother Language Day at Nur Mohammad Smriti Mahavidyalaya thus proved to be a meaningful and impactful initiative toward nurturing a more culturally aware and united student community.
